Rev. S. M. Cathcart, pastor of the Congregational church, conducted the funeral service of Mrs. William Pellett, which was held from her late home on Grove avenue. Interment followed in River Bend cemetery, with Frank Eldred, Poster Jugger, Charles Paimer, James Steadman, Herbert Steadman and Henry Steadman acting as bearers. There was a profusion of floral tributes.

The funeral of Thomas H. Brown, who died Tuesday, was held from his late home on Chase street Thursday afternoon, there being a large attendance of relatives and friends, and members of the Grand Army post, who attended in a body. Rev. John G. Dutton, pastor of the Broad Street Christion church conducted the service, which was followed by interment in the family plot at River Ben's cemetery, with Frank I. Dawley, Henry V. Brown, Seth Johnson, Thomas H. Brown, Charles R. Brown and A. F. Brown acting as bearers. Special Values in Cedar Chests

These Cedar Chests will afford safe storage for your furs at home and are an ideal protection against destructive insects of all kinds. These specia values are most opportune, as many persons are considering how they may safely store their furs and Winter clothing. Your furs are just as safe at home in these Aromatic Cedar Boxes as in the best protected vaults. They have a strong, pleasant odor of genuine cedar wood, which moths avoid, as they cannot exist in the same atmosphere where this wood is exposed. Note
